REPUBLICAN HYPOCRASY. In a circular entitled "Food for Thought," addressed to the colored race of the United States in general, the Rev. R. E. Gilchrist, a well-known colored minister of Washington, says:

"I hold these truths, that I shall state to be self-evident, that the republican party never freed us for our good, but only as a military or war necessity, that the drafting and forcing of us slaves in the late rebellion to crush the insurrection, and then at its close, knowing that we had no homes, no money, or protection, and very few friends, made no provision to settle us on homesteads and aid us until we recovered from the precarious and straightened circumstances in which we had been placed by reason of slavery, shows that they had no real friendship for us, nor never intended to have freed us. We were turned out like oxen, after being worked a l day, into a plowed field where there is no grass. We had no education to combat with the subtle and crafy rascals and carpetbaggers of the repub sican party of that day and time, who pretended to be our friends, therefore we were robbed with impunity in the nouse of our supposed friends. The Freedman's Bank proved this. We had nothing but that which was our masters', and when the war closed, that which had been left from the sword. fire and theft was the masters', not ours, and when this old master class returned home from the conflict, not vanquished, but overpowered by force of which we were a part, to find everybing, except in few cases gone, nothing left behind but our children and old decrepit folks with the old mistress. The old masters class returning from the war had to start life anew, and many of us after helping to overpower them in the war, returned to them again empty-handed for succor. They ever turned their backs on us, but endily found employment and gave us uch sid as laid in their power with the scanty means in their possession and to many cases the master helped our old mothers, wives and children until we returned for them. Now the question of the Good Samaritan comes in. Who are our friends, the ones who used us in war to their interest and afterward passed us by, or those who took us in when homele s and gave us shel'er and food? Let conscience declare that the southern ex-slave holders have done more for us since our forced emancip: tion than the northerners, considering the condition in which the southern States were left after the war. 'The second question is: Since the republican party never freed us for th sake of justice, but from necessity of something to their interest, why shoul we as a distinct race continue to vot for men of its party in preference to good men in the democratic party? And why should we continue to sail longer in the old ship of state with them while they are ruoning the stip in the interest of eastern and European bondholders, trusts, and monopolite? Ought not 400 years be long enough to serve the European lords and American aristocracy? Who perpetuated hu-man slavery in this country as long as it was but the money power, which is now raising its monster head through the republican party, with its monopolies, trusts and imperialism, to crush out the life blood of the republic, and to drive every poor man who is not in these trusts into poverty, and we, the negroes, will be the first to feel the burden, for very few of us have anything to fall back upon of this world's goods. Brethren, now let us turn and try the democratic party and see if they will help us out of our present condi tion where politics has placed us, for the republican party has forsaken us as Castellarg National Jewelry Company, tire democratic ticket, in every State, city, town and hamlet, and on the 6th o. November when the sun goes down behind the western horizon the news may be flashed over every line of telegraph wire that the negro's vote has helped save the republic again, this time from the grip of republican carp-tbaggers, democratic renegades, trust-greed, and imperialism. The whole world will then realize that the negroes can't always be fooled. Do

> DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP? A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more se vere and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possi-ble for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Bos-chee's German Syrup." From the Times, Hillstille, Vs. I suffered with darrhoes for a long time and thought I was past being cured.
